

Collectors Club of San Francisco dinner at WESTPEX 2010

Guest Speaker: Julian Auleytner

The Beginnings of the Postal Service in Poland's Second Republic: 1918-1920

Professor Julian Auleytner of Warsaw, Poland is an avid collector of his native country for many years with special interest in the development of the post in the Second Republic. He is the leading authority of this period of Polish philately and author of "Philatelic Gems of the Crown of the Second Republic of Poland 1918-1920."

Although a relative newcomer to exhibiting, he has won two gold medals in U.S. national shows, an APS Research Award at CHICAGOPEX and a Reserve Grand at the Sarasota National Stamp Exhibition in 2009. He earned a gold medal at the 2008 Polish National Exhibition in Wroclaw, Poland and a large vermeil at the International Exhibition in China in 2009.

Born in Warsaw, Poland in 1948, he obtained an MBA in 1969, a Ph.D. in 1977, and a Post Doctoral Lecturing Qualification in 1987 at the University of Economics in Warsaw. From 1990 to 1993 he was Vice-Dean of the Journalism and Political Sciences Faculty, from 1991-1995 Associate Professor at Warsaw University, and from 1995 full professor, his current position. An author of over 250 scientific publications and books, deeply involved with national and international committees on social policy, he is also a member of the prestigious Polish Academy of Sciences.
