

Collectors Club of San Francisco dinner at WESTPEX

Guest Speaker: Tom Slemons

Great Britain Postal History 1839-1844

Tom Slemons' philatelic interests have varied widely including Great Britain with focus on Suffolk, Mulready Advertisements, British Colonies, Japanese occupation of Asia, World War II Japanese POW mail, the Mac Robertson Air Race, and covers of the once world's largest dealer, Whitfield King. Although Tom's focus on Mulready Advertisements is primarily Suffolk County, as a result of his friendship with Malcolm Lowe, author of the book, The Mulready Advertisements, he made a commitment to Malcolm to revise and republish his book. Tom has obtained the copyright to The Mulready Advertisements and is currently at work revising it. In addition, He has completely revamped the Mulready Advertisement section of the Stanley Gibbons Specialized Catalog, Vol. I, 15th edition.

Tom has been selected as the lecturer for the Stuart Rossiter Trust in November 2009. The subject will be "Researching Great Britain County Postal History." He has also presented talks on the Mulready and its short life at a number of WSP shows. He has been studying Great Britain stampless and line-engraved postal history for about thirty five years. More recently Tom has begun exhibiting in the U.S.A and UK and has received gold awards for his exhibits. Tom has published numerous articles in several journals and magazines including Gibbons Stamp Monthly, The GB Journal, GBCC Chronicle, and East Anglia Postal History Study Circle.
