

Collectors Club of San Francisco Dinner at WESTPEX 2015

Guest Speaker: Les Lanphear III

Postal History of US Officials

Les started collecting as a youth when his grandfather gave him an album for Christmas. Living in Northern Idaho he never attended a stamp show and the closest club was in the next town and not very exciting. His move to Southern California exposed him to stamp shops, a serious stamp club, SESCAL, and WESTPEX. Les started accumulating stamps and covers in several areas. His longtime love of U.S. Official mails started in 1975 and lead to his exhibiting and writing about this area. His U.S. Departmentals exhibit has received two international Large Golds, his Penalty Clause Mail exhibit has received an international Gold and both exhibits have received international felicitations and domestic Grand Awards. Two of his published articles on U.S. Officials have received awards from the U.S. Philatelic Classic Society. Les was the librarian of the San Diego Philatelic Library for seven years. He has been an officer of the Collectors Club of Southern California for 24 years and involved with other Southern California philatelic organizations in various positions. Les has also been an assistant section editor for the U.S. Philatelic Classic Society journal for twenty-five years and their Southern California Regional Vice President since 1993. The Classic Society awarded Les their Distinguished Philatelist Award in 2010.
